GEORGE EARL JOHNSON, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 180ᵗʰ District Court
Harris County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 712,597

O P I N I O N

Appellant, George Earl Johnson, was indicted for the offense of sexual assault. He pleaded nolo contendere and the trial court found him guilty. The court placed appellant on eight years' deferred adjudication. Three months later, based upon allegations that appellant violated the terms of his community supervision, the State filed a motion to revoke probation and adjudicate guilt. The trial court found appellant guilty and sentenced him to fifteen years' confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. Appellant gave timely notice of appeal.

Appellant's appointed appellate counsel filed a brief in which he concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), by presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807, 809 (Tex. Crim. App.1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record and to file a pro se brief. As of this date, no pro se brief has been filed and the time permitted to file such a brief has expired.

We agree the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the brief would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the State.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed and we grant appellate counsel's motion to withdraw.
