Fourteenth Court of Appeals

NO. 14-99-00725-CR

ADELINA RAPP, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 174th District Court
Harris County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. 787,983

OPINION

Appellant entered a guilty plea, without a plea bargain agreement as to punishment, to the felony offense of delivery of a controlled substance, namely cocaine, weighing at least 400 grams. Appellant signed a waiver of constitutional rights, agreement to stipulate, and judicial confession, and signed and initialed, where necessary, admonishments waiving certain rights. After a Pre-Sentence Investigation report was completed, the trial court held a hearing and assessed punishment at eighteen years confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice- Institutional Division and a $1.00 fine.

Appellant's appointed counsel filed a brief in which he concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S.Ct. 1396, 18 L.Ed.2d 493 (1967), by presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record and to file a pro se brief. As of this date, no pro se brief has been filed.

We agree the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of the brief would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the State.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed.
